

The Rise of Workforce Collaboration in 2019

Three major shifts are happening in the modern workplace:

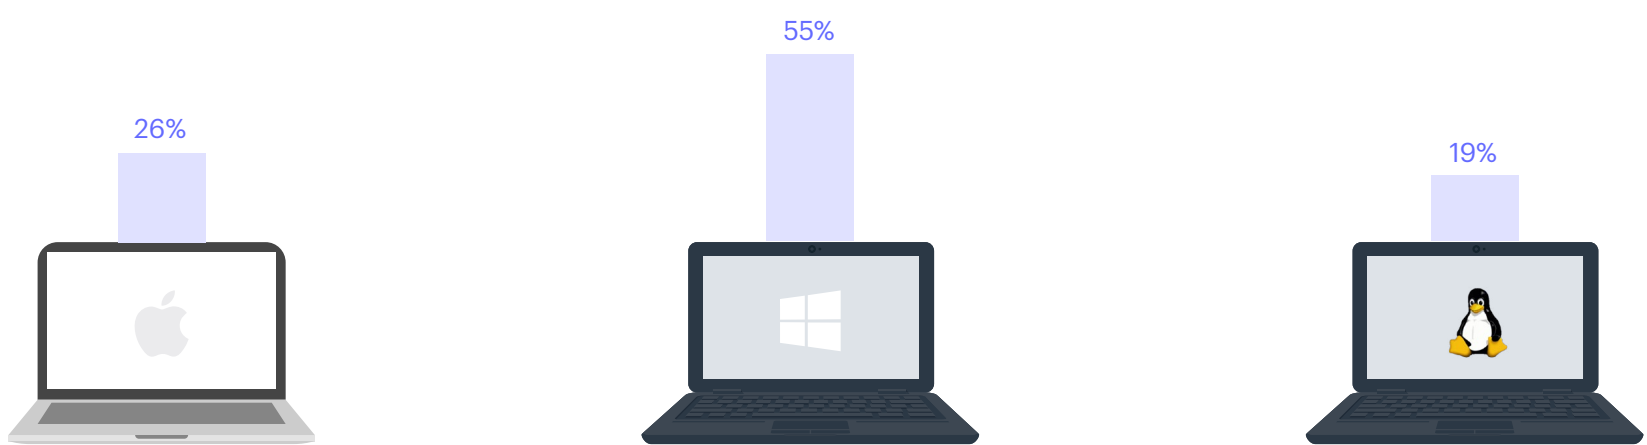

1. More remote workers

54% of the workforce will be remote in 2020. Survey respondents reported that, today, 45% of the workforce is remote, compared to 36% in 2016.

2. Multiple operating systems

Due to BYOD and CYOD policies, 50% of companies now support multiple operating systems.

3. More office locations

In the next two years, the number of companies with 3 to 5 offices is expected to drop from 30% to 20%, and companies with 10+ offices will increase from 22% to 35%.

How does IT plan to solve these challenges?

70%

of IT organizations have an initiative around workforce collaboration.

Read the full 2019 IT Report to learn how IT leaders are supporting this new initiative of workforce collaboration.

